NICOLAS SCHUYBROEK ARCHITECTS

DIRECTOR NICOLAS SCHUYBROEK

Brussels, Belgium

Where do you go to appreciate exceptional design?

A wide array of locations, too long to list, ranging from galleries, temporary exhibitions, and museums but also clients and private collections.

The one thing people always ask me is:

How old are you, actually?

Three words that most appropriately sum up my approach to design are:

Tactile, raw, elegant.

What is a key influence that we can anticipate seeing in projects you are yet to release?

An evolution in the project content and types, scales and locations. Raw and refined materials with a soul. Our signature kitchen in tin for Obumex is certainly a good example.

LONG-TERM VISION, ALWAYS.”

What is the one piece of advice you would share with a young designer?

Go with the long-term vision, always.

When you walk into a room, what is the first thing you always notice about a space?

The proportions and overall balance of the room as a whole.

What does designing for a better world mean to you in 2023?

Designs that are content-driven and impactful in the noblest sense.
